DAY 4: PARTNER WITH A FRIEND TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Watch: Watch today's short video. Pay attention to the question John asks and his perspective on the day's intentional action.

Think: Now that you've watched the video, think about needs you have noticed at work, in your neighborhood, or in your community. Choose one to address. It could be cleaning out the garage of an elderly neighbor. Or offering to watch the children of a single mom. Or cleaning a neighborhood spot so kids can play. Or helping a coworker to tackle an unpleasant task.

Now think about someone you know who might be like-minded and want to join you in doing something about it.

Do: Talk to your friend today about partnering up to address the need that you noticed. If you can follow through today, then do so. If not, then schedule to take action together before the week is out.

Tell: Take pictures of the before and after, and share them. If you use social media, post them with the hashtag #IntentionalLiving. You can also click to share today's big idea on social media:

The Law of Significance:
One is too small a number to achieve greatness. Partner up.
