DAY 21:
THE BIGGER
THE DREAM,
THE GREATER
THE TEAM

Watch: Watch today's short video. Pay attention to the question John asks and his perspective on the day's intentional action.

Think: Think about how you want to start sharing your dream. Do you want to write something down the way John did? Do you want to tell a story that embodies and illustrates the vision? Do you want to rehearse an "elevator pitch" – a practiced talk that you would be able to deliver in 30 seconds? There's no right or wrong. Whatever you do just needs to match who you are.

Do: Prepare your communication using whatever method you desire, then talk to two people every day about your dream for the next five days and invite them to join you. Ideally, you would make it a regular habit to talk about your dream and invite people to join you.

Tell: After you've started this habit of inviting people to join your dream, tell them about your process of learning intentional living. If you use social media, share using the hashtag #IntentionalLiving. You can also click to share today's big idea on social media:

Teamwork makes the dream work.
